Miss Lena Austin left yesterday for Mangum where she will begin her duties as regular manager of the Western Union Telegraph office.

Sheriff J. S. Thompson, wife and little daughter returned last evening from a week's pleasure trip in Colorado. Mrs. Thompson has been absent from Anadarko during the past four months, having spent the greater part of that time at her old home in Nebraska.

J. F. Bell, of Newton, Kas. who has been mentioned before in this paper, is here with a car load of Poland China hogs. The hogs are on sale at the Wesler Bros. Feed yard. The stock he offers is good and prices reasonable. Call early and get your choice, they sell fast.

Mrs. W. A. Bennett and two little sons, of Hobart, passed through the city last evening on their return from a four month's visit with relatives at Fort Worth and other Texas points. Mr. Bennett, who is well known to our local grocers as a most affable salesman, met the party at Chickasha and accompanied them home.

Come in and tell us about your crops. The residents of other states are eager to hear of the phenomenal output of Caddo county farms for this season, and we are equally eager to boast of the enormous crops which will soon be on the market in this section of the country. Help us all you can by giving us this information, which will be invaluable to us.

C. J. Scheetz went to Apache on the evening train.

Col. R. A. Sneed, of Mt. Scott is a business visitor in Anadarko today.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

Will cure any case of Kidney or Bladder disease that is not beyond the reach of medicine.

GIVEN UP TO DIE.
B. Spiegel, 1294 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over four years I was troubled with a kidney and bladder affection. I lost flesh and was unable to work. Three physicians failed to help me and I was given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured."
